

Example Secondary Model Responses

Math

Explain and Describe

The slope-intercept form of a line refers to the equation of the line that isolates 'y' on one side. The other side consists of the 'x' variable with a coefficient, represented by an 'm' in the generic form, that is the slope of the line. This side includes the constant, 'b,' which is the y-intercept.

Science

Explain and Describe

In geology, rocks are generally divided into three classifications: igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic. Igneous rocks consist of hardened lava and magma. They often appear shiny and sharp. Basalt and granite are examples of igneous rocks. Sedimentary rocks are created by a process of weathering, transportation, and deposition. Shale and limestone belong to the category of sedimentary rocks. Metamorphic rocks are created by a process involving heat and pressure, which transforms the composition and texture. Metamorphic rocks, such as slate, can be described as grainy or flaky.

Possible Sentence Frames

In _____, _____, are generally divided into three classifications: _____, _____, and _____ . _____ consist of _____ and _____. They often verb...

_____ and _____ are examples of _____. _____ are created by a process of noun+ing, noun, and noun. _____ and _____ belong to the category of _____. _____ are created by a process involving _____ and _____, which verb+s..

_____, such as _____, can be described as adjective or adjective.

Example Primary Model Responses

Social Studies

Explain

When Lewis and Clark left Missouri in 1803 to explore the West, it launched the Westward Expansion. It lasted until the late 1800s.

Language Arts

Describe

Because recyclables go to differ places, it is important to remember to separate them into two groups. One group should be for plastic and glass and the other for paper and cardboard.